COMMON ORAL JUDGMENT

(Per : HONOURABLE MR.JUSTICE R.S.GARG)

1. Mr.N.R. Shahani, learned counsel for the appellants-workers and Mr. Keyur D. Gandhi, under authority of Mr. K.S. Nanavati submit that the amount already deposited by the establishment with the Registrar of this Court be paid to the appellants in accordance with their entitlement in full and final settlement of all the disputes. It is also agreed between the parties that two months' salary which has been deposited with the authority under the Payment of Wages Act be allowed to be withdrawn by each of the employee and after the said amount is withdrawn, the matters pending before the authority under the Payment of Wages Act shall also stand disposed of.
2. In view of the agreement, both the appeals are finally disposed of with a direction that on the employees making an application to the Registrar for payment of the money deposited by the establishment, the Registrar shall issue necessary instructions for payment of the said amount along with interest, if any, accrued over it. It is also directed that the amount deposited with the authority under the Payment of Wages Act would be paid to the workmen and on that being done, those matters would stand disposed of. In terms of the compromise, the Civil Applications are also disposed of. Rule is discharged in each of the Civil Application. Direct service is allowed.
